INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Amba Auto Sales and Services Private Limited

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Amba Auto Sales and Services Private Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2021, and the Statement of Profit and Loss, and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2021, and profit, and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Information other than the financial statements and auditors' report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Board's Report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

The Board's Report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this Auditors' Report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read Board's Report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Responsibilities of the Management and Those Charged with Governance for Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is included in "Annexure-A" of this auditor's report.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016 ("the Order"), issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (11) of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013, we give in the "Annexure B" a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order..

2. As required by Section 143(3) of the Act, we report that:

- a. We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit.
- b. In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books
- c. The Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss, and the Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account
- d. In our opinion, the aforesaid financial statements comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.
- e. On the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on 31st March, 2021 taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors is disqualified as on 31st March, 2021 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act.
- f. With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us;
 - i. The Company does not have any pending litigations which would impact its financial position:
 - ii. The Company did not have any long-term contracts including derivative contracts which require any provision to be made for material foreseeable losses;

ANNEXURE-A TO THE AUDITOR'S REPORT

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

(ii) The rights, entitlement and obligations of different classes of equity shares are mentioned here under:

The Company has a single class of equity shares with a par value of Rs. 10. Accordingly, all equity shares rank equally with regard to dividends and share in the Company's residual assets. The equity shares are entitled to receive dividend as declared from time to time subject to payment of dividend to preference shareholders. The voting rights of an equity shareholder on a poll (not on show of hands) are in proportion to its share of the paid-up equity capital of the Company. Voting rights cannot be exercised in respect of shares on which any call or other sums presently payable have not been paid.

On winding up of the Company, the holders of equity shares will be entitled to receive the residual assets of the Company, remaining after distribution of all preferential amounts in proportion to the number of equity shares held.

NOTES TO ACCOUNTS1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES*1. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared and presented under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis of accounting and mandatory accounting standards ('AS') prescribed by Companies (Accounting Standards), Rules 2006 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable.

The Company is a small and medium size company ("SMC") as defined in the General Instructions of the Rules in respect of Accounting Standards notified under the Companies Act, 2013. Accordingly, the Company has complied with the accounting standards as applicable to a small and medium size Company.

2. Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Accounting Standards requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and disclosures relating to contingent assets and liabilities as at the date of financial statements and reported amount of income and expenses during the period. Examples of such estimates include future obligations under employee retirement benefits, income taxes and the useful lives of fixed assets..

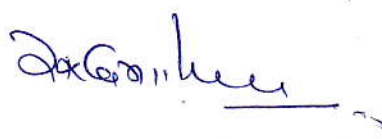

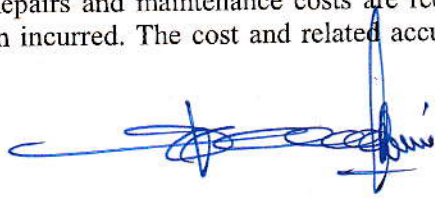

3. Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment, if any. Costs directly attributable to acquisition are capitalized until the property, plant and equipment are ready for use, as intended by the Management. the Company depreciates property, plant and equipment over their estimated useful lives using the Diminishing Balance Method. The estimated useful lives of assets are as follows:

Sl. No.	Asset	Life as Assets (in years)
1	Computers and Accessories	3 years
2	Furniture & Fixtures	10 years
4	Office Equipments	5 years
5	Electrical Installations & Fittings	10 years
6	Plant & Machinery	15 years
7	Motor Vehicles	6 years
8	Building	60 years

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed periodically, including at each financial at each financial year end.

Advance paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each Balance Sheet date is classified as capital advance under other non-current assets and the cost of the assets not put to use before such date are disclosed under "Capital work-in-progress". Subsequent expenditure relating to property, plant and equipment are capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. Repairs and maintenance costs are recognized in net profit in the Statement of Profit and Loss when incurred. The cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the financial statements upon sale or retirement of the asset and the resultant gains or losses are recognized in the Statement Profit and Loss. Asset to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying value or the fair value less cost to sell.

4. Inventories

Finished Goods and Trading Stocks are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.

5. Revenue Recognition

Revenue from services has been recognized based on completion of the specific Contract and based on billings made to the client. Revenue from sales has been recognized as and when the property in the goods and the risk and reward Has-been transferred to the customer.

6. Earnings Per Share (EPS)

Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the Net Profit or Loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of Equity Shares outstanding during the year. As per Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules 2006, the Company is a SMC, the disclosure with respect to Diluted EPS is not mandatory, however, the diluted EPS is been given. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur on the conversion of dilutive potential equity shares. Diluted EPS is computed by using the weighted average number of Equity shares and dilutive potential equity shares outstanding during the year.

7. Taxes on Income

Income taxes are computed using the tax effect accounting method, where taxes are accrued in the same period the related revenues and expenses arise. A provision is made for income tax annually, based on the tax liability computed, after considering tax allowances and exemptions. Provisions are recorded when it is estimated that a liability due to disallowances or other matters is probable. The differences that result between the profit considered for income taxes and the profit as per the financial statements are identified, and thereafter a deferred tax asset or deferred tax liability is recorded for timing difference, namely the differences that originates in one accounting period and reverse in another, based on the tax effect of the aggregate amount being considered. The tax effect is calculated timing difference at the end of an accounting period, based on prevailing enacted regulations. Deferred tax asset are recognized only if there is reasonable certainty that they will be realized and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their carrying values at each balance sheet date.

8. Contingent Liabilities & Provisions:

In terms of requirements of the Accounting Standards 29 (AS 29) on "Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets" issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India:

1. Where, as a result of past events, there is a present obligation that probably requires outflow of resources and a reliable estimates can be made of the amount of obligation-an appropriate provision is created and disclosed;
2. Where, as a result of past events, there is a possible obligation that may, but probably will not require an outflow of resources-no provision is recognized but appropriate disclosures made as contingent liabilities unless the possible

9. Foreign Currency Transactions:

Transactions in foreign currency are accounted for at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of transactions. Exchange differences arising on foreign currency transactions settled during the year are recognized in the Profit and Loss Account for the year, Other than exchange differences related to the liabilities for acquisition of fixed assets that are adjusted to the cost of the related fixed assets. All monetary items denominated in foreign currency are translated at exchange rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. The resultant exchange differences are recognized in the Profit and Loss Account for the year, other than exchange differences related to the liabilities for acquisition of fixed assets that are adjusted to the cost of fixed assets. In the case of forward contracts, the difference between the forward rate and the exchange rate on the date of the transaction is recognized in the Profit and Loss Account over the life of the contract, except in case of liabilities relating to acquisition of fixed assets, which is adjusted to the carrying cost of the fixed asset.
